Criteria will be looked into. Tabled until next meeting.

State Board: Chris Ellison reported:

The OPTA conference Dues and fees structure.

- Membership fees based on Enrollment by district?

Changing State Bi-Laws to change the Presidents one year term to two, this will give the position more consistency.

A volunteer committee was put together to talk about this.

Matt Kutcher, David Phillips, Chris Ellison Deborah Lincoln

2 NW Chapter members – 1 SW Chapter, Mike Severyn

Chris asked for ideas on the subject and was given many.

- A six year term is to much to ask and increases odds for vacancy
- Cut term to one year pre, two year present, and one year post -4 year term
- Put together a past President advisory committee to help new Presidents and cover the every other year shortage on jobs that the Presidents are given
- Why mess with something that's not broke?

Safety Exercise – State level

- Could each chapter pick up lodging cost for their people?
- SW proposes: 2 to 4 people. A per diem of a certain amount to cover lodging and food
- $100.00 each, $75 lodging $25 food Maximum amount
- Receipt required for payment
- Limited to the core group of set up people and head judge
 - If SW gets on board with this we will ask for a motion at the Feb. meeting.

Motor coach problems brought up. A committee has been set up drafting new rules.

Mike Shields shared his trip to Michigan

Dues set for conference - $110 members, $150 non-members. May 31st is the last day to register, after that $10 more, late charge.
